

CHIRANJI LAL AGRAWAL MEMORIAL LIBRARY TRUST

'C' Block, Old DLB Building, Rajasthan High Court, C-Scheme, Jaipur – 302005

Ph: 0141-4002648, E-Mail: clagrawalibrary@gmail.com

---

LIBRARY INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

RAJASTHAN EDUCATION TRUST passed a resolution in March – 2021 to start a Legal Training Program for the UG Law Students with the name of LIBRARY INTERNSHIP PROGRAM (LIP) and requested to the Trustees of the CL Agrawal Memorial Library Trust to conduct this program at the CL Agrawal Memorial (CLAM) Library, Rajasthan High Court, Jaipur.

The LIP (Library Internship Program) is designed to acquaint law students about the profession at the very beginning of their learning. They must be taught about the Ethics of legal profession and the possible Opportunities & Challenges they will be facing further in their career.

This profession requires a whole lot of Reading & Researching practice before reaching to any conclusions. Importance of Good Drafting & Oratorical skills along with other process of court & government working patterns.

On the contrary, it is observed that students are leaving the habit of Reading & Researching, Daily Knowledge update even through the newspapers. Search engines of internet are believed as the authentic source of information.

Through this program students would get to know the practical aspects of the Laws, Lawyers Work Patterns, Courts Proceedings, Court Etiquettes, Mediation Process, Arbitration Process, Legal Aid Activities, Researching Case Laws, Preparing Briefs of the listed cases, Drafting Notices/Writs/PILs, Reading Books etc...

Since then CLAM Library is been able continuously conduct and grow this LIP with the help & support of many Institutions, Dignitaries & Individuals. The performance & results LIP students are encouraging and motivating.